PUBLICATIONS

OF

WM. RUTTER & CO.,

S. W. COR. SEVENTH AND CHERRY STREETS,

PHILADELPHIA.

A COMPLETE HISTORY OF OUR NATIONAL LITERATURE.

Cyclopædia of American Literature,

FROM THE EARLIEST DATE TO THE PRESENT TIME.

NEW EDITION, REVISED.

With nearly 1000 Wood-cuts of Portraits, Autographs, Views of Colleges, Authors' Residences, Public and Private Buildings, connected with our Literary History.

Of the merits of "THE CYCLOPÆDIA OF AMERICAN LITERATURE," edited by Evert A. Duyckinck and the late George L. Duyckinck, it is needless to speak. It is the standard work in its special and attractive department. It contains graphic sketches of the Lives and Writings of over eight hundred of the most illustrious American Authors, accompanied by fitting extracts from the best of their works, and illustrated by numerous Portraits, Autographs, and other Engravings. In itself it is a WHOLE LIBRARY OF AMERICAN BELLES-LETTRES, adapted to the most refined home circle. It caters, alike, to the taste of the scholar and the general reader. In no other work are so broadly and plainly set forth the greater and lesser landmarks of American Literature, whether of the past or of to-day. Its full, clear pages are a noble monument to the fruits of the life-toil of American Authors, creditable alike to its Editors and to its glorious theme.

The entire literary revision has been entrusted to M. Laird Simons, whose connection with various literary journals has given him peculiar facilities for a knowledge of contemporary literature.

From Atlantic Monthly.

"Both the Messrs. Duyckinck and Mr. Simons have honestly sought to make the Cyclopædia an impartial and unadorned record of what has been done by American writers." . . . . "The book is what it professes to be, a Cyclopædia and not a treatise, and the facts stated, so far as our knowledge goes, are accurately and fairly given." . . . . "The work remains as a most comprehensive and convenient guide to American authorship." . . . . "Any one who desires to acquaint himself with the names, general career, and productions of American writers up to the present day, will find the Cyclopædia an excellent base of operations."

The work is published in two handsome imperial octavo volumes of over 1000 pages each, and is accompanied by an exhaustive Index.

DR. DALE'S CELEBRATED WORKS ON BAPTISM.

CLASSIC BAPTISM.

An Inquiry into the Meaning of the Word

ΒΑΠΤΙΖΩ

AS DETERMINED BY THE USAGE OF CLASSICAL GREEK WRITERS.

By JAMES W. DALE, D.D.,

PASTOR OF THE MEDIA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.

Shows: I. Baptist writers do not know the meaning of the word βαπτίζω. Baptist Books through 250 years contradict Baptist definitions and Baptist practice. II. ΒΑΠΤΩ, DIP. 1—Puts into a fluid for a moment and TAKES OUT; 2—Expresses a feeble effect without putting into anything. ΒΑΠΤΙΖΩ, 1—Thoroughly changes condition by putting within a fluid and NOT TAKING OUT; 2—Thoroughly changes condition without putting within anything, BY MAKING DRUNK, ETC.

"Sound scholar, deep and close thinker."—RT. REV. BISHOP STEVENS, Pennsylvania.
"Vast amount of labor and research."—PROF. PHILIP SCHAFF, D.D., New York.

8vo, 354 pp. Price, $3.50.

An Inquiry into the Usage of BAΠTIZΩ, and the Nature of

JUDAIC BAPTISM,

As Shown by Jewish and Patristic Writings.

By JAMES W. DALE, D.D.,

PASTOR OF THE MEDIA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.

Shows: I. Like the classics, ships baptised by being SUNK TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA, and men baptised by being MADE DRUNK. This is not dipping.

II. Men baptised (condition changed as to a ceremonial purity) in religious rites by sprinkling and pouring.

PROOF: JOSEPHUS, PHILO, SEPTUAGINT, APOCRYPHA.

"I have been fascinated with Classic and Judaic Baptism."—RT. REV. BISHOP COXE, New York.
"A most valuable work for the cause of truth."—N. L. RICE, D.D., President Westminster College.
"Your volumes mark an epoch in this controversy."—HENRY A. BOARDMAN, D.D., Philadelphia.

8vo, 400 pp. Price, $3.50.

AN INQUIRY INTO THE USAGE OF BAΠTIZΩ,

AND THE NATURE OF

JOHANNIC BAPTISM,

AS EXHIBITED IN THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

By JAMES W. DALE, D.D.,

PASTOR OF THE WAYNE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.

Shows: I. βαπτίστης and βάπτισμα originate in the Scriptures. Are not used in the classic sphere.

II. Βαπτίζω is never used by John with water as the element into which the baptized object passes: βαπτίζω εἰς is used to express a changed spiritual condition by an ideal passing into REPENTANCE, into THE REMISSION OF SINS. It has the classic force.

III. DIPPING INTO WATER is neither Christian baptism nor any baptism at all.

"One of the most masterly philological discussions in our language."—PROF. J. C. MOFFATT, Princeton.

"Singularly far-reaching, exhaustive, and satisfactory."—PROF. S. S. SCHMUCKER, Gettysburg.

"All the strongholds of the theory demolished."—PROF. B. M. SMITH, Virginia.

"The same calmly inexorable method."—PRES'T J. H. A. BOMBERGER, Ursinus College.

"Wealth of originality without parallel."—PROF. C. W. SCHÆFFER, Philadelphia.

"The one adequate book on the subject."—PROF. H. C. ALEXANDER, Hamp. Syd., Virginia.

"Despair cannot, logically, continue the controversy."—PROF. W. J. BEECHER, Auburn.

8vo, 420 pp. Price, $4.00.

AN INQUIRY INTO THE USAGE OF BAΠTIZΩ,

AND THE NATURE OF

Christic and Patristic Baptism,

AS EXHIBITED IN THE HOLY SCRIPTURES AND PATRISTIC WRITINGS.

By JAMES W. DALE, D.D.,

PASTOR OF WAYNE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.

CHRISTIC BAPTISM.

Shows: I. The same usage as in Johannic Baptism with a fuller development of the truth, that Christian Baptism is baptism INTO CHRIST by the Holy Spirit, as the ground cause of the remission of sins, and reconciliation and subjection to God—baptism "into the Name of the Father, of the Son, of the Holy Ghost."

II. The meaning of all passages in the New Testament supposed to relate to baptism.

"Haziness and mists that have hung over the most vital statements of the way of salvation, all cleared away."—STUART ROBINSON, D.D., Kentucky.

"I have never before seen my way out of ristualistic confusion and entanglement."—JONATHAN EDWARDS, D.D., Peoria.

"Nothing written in America comparable in thoroughness and candor."—PRES'T W. F. WARREN, Boston University.

"A work of prodigious labor."—CHANCELLOR CROSBY, N. Y. University.

"Thesaurus of learning and suggestive thought."—PROF. LEONARD BACON, New Haven.

"Your masterly work covers the entire subject."—PRES'T J. F. HURST, Madison.

"Complete scientific study; its main results final."—PROF. W. J. BEECHER, Auburn.

PATRISTIC BAPTISM.

Shows: I. The same usage as that of classic and inspired writers. No dipping in βαπτίζω.

II. A departure from Bible teaching by the conjoining of water and the Holy Spirit in the rite, and by the introduction of a covering in water as a symbol of the burial of Christ in the rock sepulchre.

III. Βαπτίζω used absolutely with the meaning TO PURIFY SPIRITUALLY. Not used for water covering.

IV. Patristic writers KNOW NOTHING OF DIPPING INTO WATER as Christan baptism.

"I hope that our age may produce scholars who will investigate every point of theological science as faithfully and as successfully as you have investigated baptism."—PROF. W. J. BEECHER, Auburn.

"Your books are to be standard references for all time—MONUMENTUM ÆRE PERRENNIUS."—PROF. LYMAN COLEMAN, Lafayette College.

"Thorough and overwhelming vindication of our baptism."—PROF. J. F. BERG, New Brunswick.

"It seems to me to settle the quæstio vexata."—JOHN JENKINS, D.D., Montreal, Canada.

C. & P. B. 8vo, 630 pp. Price, $5.00.

JUDGMENT OF SCHOLARS.

"I have read Classic Baptism almost with admiration."—D. R. GOODWIN, Provost University of Pa.

"I doubt if its equal can anywhere be found."—JOS. CUMMINS, President Wesleyan University.

"How few are capable of taking it up this way."—PROF. C. E. STOWE, Lane and Andover.

"What you have written will not be easily answered."—LEONARD WOODS, President Bowdoin College.

"Incomparable specimen of polemical discussion."—PROF. B. M. SMITH, Virginia.

"Able and convincing, thorough and original."—PROF. H. B. SMITH, New York.

"Noble Christian bearing towards your opponents.—BISHOP L. SCOTT, Delaware.

"A prodigy of philological labor."—PROF. T. H. SKINNER, New York.

"All the world acknowledges your great success."—ASA D. SMITH, President, Dartmouth.

"The testimonials are not at all exaggerated."—RT. REV. BISHOP CLARKE, Rhode Island.

"No treatise has so pleased me. I have read about 200 volumes, in Harvard College library. No one has so laboriously and carefully covered the old Greek authors."—W. BARROWS, D.D., Mass.

"I have marvelled at your patience in stopping against the 'immersionists' every actual, probable, possible, imaginary, improbable, and impossible hole. The general view which you present of the uses of βαπτίζω and ἐν (also εἰς), it seems to me, cannot be refuted."—PROF. ALPHEUS CROSBY, Author of Greek Grammar.

JUDGMENT OF QUARTERLIES.

"DR. DALE, with good humored bantering, but with clinching force shows that DIP will not answer in a single case. He has put the Baptists on the defensive. His arguments are not to be put aside by vituperation."—Princeton Quarterly.

"He establishes his position that all through the Patristic interpretations of Jewish baptism, a dipping or covering with water never entered into their thoughts as a requisite for baptism. These volumes really mark an era in the controversy."—American Presbyterian Quarterly, New York.

"DR. DALE, with rare acumen, perfect courtesy, and good humored raillery, sustained every position. These works are invaluable."—Theological Quarterly, Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

"DR. DALE here proceeds on the classical usage of βαπτίζω, established by his own labors in a manner never before even attempted, to further investigation by labors equally great and equally new. The success is complete."—Southern Presbyterian Quarterly.

"The argument is completed. A work of learning, skill, and great power. It must attract great attention. Our Baptist brethren are stranded."—Congregational Review.

"The discussion indicates great ability, originality, patient investigation, fair-mindedness, clear discrimination, and has done invaluable service."—Bibliothica Sacra, Andover.

whose literary contents should be of permanent and constantly attractive merit. The list given above has already assured the intelligent reader that no names could well be selected from Ancient and Modern History from which a judicious and genial writer might more readily present

Thrilling and Attractive Biographies of Eminent Women,

OF ABSORBING AND INSTRUCTIVE INTEREST.

Besides fine natural abilities, Mr. Goodrich has been afforded extraordinary opportunities for preparing a work of this nature, which but few would so well improve. The whole work speaks for itself in chaste, glowing, and brilliant style; and a series of engravings costing many thousands of dollars, from the burins of distinguished artists, which a generous public will duly appreciate.

In Extra Morocco Cloth, gilt edges, $6.00.

MARTIAL DEEDS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

BY SAMUEL P. BATES, LL.D.

THE work embraces a résumé of Pennsylvania history from the period of its settlement, elucidating all the important questions which have entered into its progress in civil polity and material resource; a consideration of the great questions which led to Civil War; a complete and accurate history of the State during that eventful period; an account of the passage of President Lincoln through the State, and his departure for Washington in disguise; a full narrative of the Battle of Gettysburg; the Burning of Chambersburg; a history of the Union Volunteer, and Cooper Shop Refreshment Saloons of Philadelphia; biographical sketches of many of the prominent officers and civilians of the State who took an active part in the strife; a life of old JOHN BURNS the "Hero of Gettysburg;" together with incidents of heroic daring and suffering.

For more than six years the author devoted himself to gathering the material for this volume, and having every facility for obtaining the facts, this work is believed to be reliable in every particular. His name is a sufficient guarantee of its excellence in point of literary merit, while the subjects themselves present at once matters of absorbing interest.

In the publication of this work neither time nor expense has been spared to present to the people of this Commonwealth, on fine toned and laid paper, of faultless texture, in exquisitely handsome and durable bindings, A SUPERBLY PRINTED AND ILLUSTRATED VOLUME.

Nearly 80 portraits on steel, with other illustrations, maps, etc., costing many thousands of dollars, from the burins of distinguished artists, which cannot fail of appreciation, will adorn the work.

In best English Cloth, beveled boards, full gilt back, side stamp, with gold bands, gilt edges, richly bound, ... $6.75
In Half Turkey Morocco, cloth sides, full gilt edges and side stamp, very handsome, 8.75

"The author has brought to his work an earnestness, capacity, research; a judgment almost unerring, with a style chaste, simple and pure; and narrates his history after the manner of a genuine master."—MAJ. GEN. JOS. HOOKER.

*"Described with a minuteness of detail that cannot be found elsewhere * * and betrays the fruits of patient and accurate study and comparison."*—THE TRIBUNE, NEW YORK.

The Battle of Gettysburg,

BY SAMUEL P. BATES, LL.D.

AUTHOR OF MARTIAL DEEDS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

COMPRISING the "fairest, fullest, and very best history of the greatest battle of modern times," and in all respects the "justest yet presented."

In addition, are given in full the official reports of Meade and Lee, copies of orders and telegrams from the field immediately pending, during, and subsequent to the fight; an account of the numbers engaged and losses sustained; of the burial of the dead; a brief account of the consecration of the grounds of the National Cemetery, November 19th, 1863; with a full and complete list of the burials therein, giving name, rank, company, regiment, section and number of grave; also a biographical sketch of OLD JOHN BURNS, the civilian hero of Gettysburg, and portrait exhibiting the rugged features of his sturdy face.

The whole is finely illustrated with steel engraved plates of prominent officers of both armies; maps of the field on each day of the fight; a representation of the Historical Monument; and plan of the improvement of the grounds of the National Cemetery.

The author is a gentleman of large knowledge, experience, ability, and culture and is every way competent to discharge such a task, which requires a great amount of study and research; and we feel confident in saying, not only from our own knowledge, but also from that of many others, who were on the field, (military critics,) that it is the very best history of that battle, that has ever been written, and in the composition of it the author has exhibited keen discrimination as a military critic, and unsurpassed power in the accurate delineation of a great battle. No one can fail to understand how, in all its details, that greatest of the battles of the war and, in many respects, of modern times, was fought. The maps which accompany it are a marvel of accuracy and excellence. Instead of crowding all upon one sheet—by which the mind would be more confused than aided—four large maps are given, each devoted to a particular phase of the struggle, thus clearly presenting to the eye the actual position of the two armies in each successive stage.

Illustrated with fine steel-plate Portraits, etc. One vol., 8vo, 336 pp., cloth, bevel boards, $3.00.

Sent on receipt of price, post-paid, by addressing the Publishers.

V. A Reform of the Common English Branches of Instruction. Manual introductory to, and explanatory of, the Series of Rational Readers. 101 pp. Boards, $0.30

Into this Series of Readers is introduced the rational or developing system of instruction, as practiced in the best Swiss and German schools. This being the first time that such a plan has been adopted in any work professing to teach the Elements of the English language, the author has bestowed upon his production the distinguishing title of Rational Readers. By a frequent intermixture of notes for the teacher with the spelling and reading exercises, it is hoped that the design is so clearly presented that those teachers even who have not had a previous opportunity of thoroughly studying it, may be enabled at once to comprehend it in all its details, and to use these books with pleasure and success.

Wherever REFFELT'S Arithmetics become known, they are preferred to all other Arithmetics, because

1. they are simple, concise, and progressive, preparing the way to the higher Arithmetical Branches more surely and intelligently;

2. they are thoroughly practical and free from rules and matter not adapted to young minds;

3. they contain in a very limited space a greater number and variety of problems;

4. the examples are all original;

5. they give, besides the old Systems of Weights and Measures, a thorough exposition of the Metric System, adopted by Congress in 1866, now taught in the National Schools of France, Germany, Great Britain, and in many other foreign countries;

6. they are published in four Books, or in smaller editions (Parts), which can be procured singly, and at a very low price;

7. the several Keys to REFFELT'S Arithmetics are replete with hints and suggestions which must prove invaluable alike to teacher and pupil. They can be used with equal benefit in classes, or without a master.

REFFELT'S Arithmetics are extensively used; they have also been imitated, copied, and reprinted largely by German and American Authors.

Ahn's Second Latin Reader. With Notes. By Dr. P. HENN.

These books (part of which are now for sale, while the rest will speedily follow) embody all the points of excellence which have secured for the German and French Courses of Dr. HENN such universal recognition and approval.

In the preparation of the Latin Course, the author has profited by his long experience, and produced books which, still more than his other text-books, will prove easy and attractive for the learner and a great assistance to the teacher, especially in such schools where practical instruction is the first object in view; they have been unhesitatingly pronounced the best books for beginners.

Dr. HENN is profoundly impressed with the necessity of imparting a clear moral tone to whatever is to be used either for the entertainment or the instruction of children and young people. This has been followed out in the selection of his examples and exercises; and for this additional reason the AHN-HENN Latin Course, aside from its other merits, is certain to meet with special recognition and favor.

The books are issued in superior style, at low prices.

*The Keys to the First, Second, and Third Latin Books, intended as aids in dictation exercises, etc., will be supplied to teachers only upon their direct application to the publisher.

The use of the AHN-HENN Text-Books results 1) in a saving of expense for books: the prices are very moderate; — 2) in a saving of time and needless trouble to both teacher and pupil: the real progress of the latter is rapid, while the teacher's task is rendered very light; — 3) in a desire to study, because pupils find this simple and natural method at once so easy and inviting;— 4) in a marked gain in sound, practical knowledge of the languages sufficient for the usual requirements of the learner. Another point of excellence is the judicious selection of the exercises, and the clear moral tone of the same.

These books have stood the actual test of the class-room and the most searching criticism; have been adopted for exclusive use in numberless colleges, academies, private and public schools throughout the country, and are universally acknowledged to be the most suitable books for the instruction of children in the languages.

French.

Ahn's French Dialogues. Dramatic Selections with Notes. Number Two. 78 pp. Boards, $0.25; Cloth, $0.35

This volume is especially suitable for young gentlemen. It contains the following four pieces: Le Mousse. — L'Enfant de troupe.—Polydore.—Le Prince.

The Notes appended to these two volumes comprise the idiomatic sentences, expressions, or turns; sentences or expressions specially used in conversation, expressions and words used familiarly, and such words as are not found with their special meaning, in a small French-English Dictionary.

The Pieces exhibit the best and most faithful models of that racy, simple, fluent, and easy French which is used in familiar conversation; and as they are irreproachable in style and in morals, their study cannot fail to be profitable and, at the same time attractive, on account of the freshness of the dialogue and the interest of the plot.

It need hardly be said expressly that the natural language here presented is much preferable to that of classical authors, whose expressions are sometimes antiquated and misleading.

What every student of Modern Languages aims at, is the ready acquisition of the facility to converse, and to this end these volumes are an agreeable and powerful aid.

The very low price of these volumes is an additional inducement for their extensive use in classes.

RETAIL PRICE LIST.

NOVELS.

Her Bright Future.

A brilliant story of American life, drawn from fact and fiction, 12 mo., 309 pp., cloth, black and gold side stamp, . . . $1 00

"In many respects this is a strong story."—Evening Journal, Chicago.

"Spiritedly written."—Gazette, Cincinnati.

"The writer may be enrolled in the list of successful authors."—Iowa State Register.

"It is a story wrought out with considerable skill. The style is graceful and subdued, and although there are several sensational incidents, they are treated in quite an artistic manner."—Daily Evening Traveler, Boston, May 17, 1880.

Odette's Marriage.

From the French of Albert Delpit, by EMILY PRESCOTT.

12 mo., 251 pp., cloth, black & gold side st'p $1 00
" " paper, ... 50

The N. Y. Evening Post of April 19, says:

"The story is told with cleverness, and there is an intensity of interest in it which only very cleverly told dramatic stories have."

The Pittsburgh Telegraph of April 9, says:

"A romance of remarkable power, but decidedly French in its many-sided phases."

The Philadelphia Times of April 22, says:

"It is a singularly well-contrived and well-written novel. * * * As a further indication of the high literary standing of the book, the fact may be mentioned that it was published originally as a serial in the Revue des Deux-Mondes."

The Ballet Dancer's Husband.

From the French of Earnest Feydeau, by MARY NEAL SHERWOOD. 12 mo., 365 pp., black and gold side stamp, . . . $1 00

"This is a bright and entertaining story; characteristically French but not foul."—Indianapolis News, July 22.

"It is told with great power and in a strikingly realistic manner."—Saturday Evening Gazette, Boston, July 10.

"The plot is intricate and exciting, and incidents thickly crowded and natural."—St. Paul Pioneer Press, July 5.

"It is absorbingly interesting."—American Bookseller, New York, July, 1880.

"There is nothing prosy about it in the least, but overflows with a brilliancy that will cause it to be read by thousands."—Commercial Advertiser, Detroit, June 25.

Zachariah, the Congressman.

A Tale of American Society. By GILBERT A. PIERCE. Illustrated. Square 12 mo., heavy tinted paper, black and gold stamp, 440 pp. $1 00

"Its Washington scenes are vividly sketched, and to the life; the characters are drawn with the boldness of the ablest novelist, and no American novel has ever fascinated me so resistlessly and delightfully."—Schuyler Colfax.

"I have read all of 'Zachariah,' and some of its passages two or three times over. I do not hesitate to say that it is decidedly the best story yet written In this country. Some of the scenes are as touching as were ever penned by Dickens himself."—Charles Aldrich,

A Respectable Family.

By RAY THOMPSON. Square 12 mo., black and gold stamp, etc., 550 pages, . . . $1 25

A story of New England life, full of quaint humor and abounding in pleasing incidents.

"He has given us an entertaining and not unprofitable book."—Morning Star.

Shadowed by Three.

By LAWRENCE L. LYNCH, Ex-Detective. Square 12 mo., 53 illustrations, black and gold stamp, 738 pages, ... $1 50

The most remarkable and best written of all detective stories. The illustrations alone are worth five times the price of the book.

"'Shadowed by Three' is the novel of the day. If the author is as good a detective as he is writer, he would be a boon to a Congressional Investigating Committee—that is provided they ever wanted to 'find things out,' which, of course, they don't. But do not imagine that this book is a 'detective story' in the sense those words are generally understood, for it is not. But it is a powerfully constructed novel of the school of "The Women in White,' 'The Moonstone,' 'Foul Play,' etc., with the added great advantage that its author is thoroughly familiar with and master of the varied and entrancing material he has so skillfully woven into his vivid and richly-colored story."

The Doctor's Protege.

By MISS MAY E. STONE. Square 12 mo., 7 illustrations, black and gold stamp, 330 pp. $1 00

"The story is of rare beauty and intense interest."—Boston Home Journal.

"It is a very pretty domestic novel, gracefully written."—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

SOLOMON'S STORY. A Novel. By W. J. Shaw. With illustrations by Farney. Engraved by Weisbrodt. Large 12mo. Cloth, extra gilt, $1.75.

"We usually simply notice an author's style, the naturalness of the plot, etc.; this book, however, cannot be dismissed so summarily.....It is ingeniously constructed; the characters stand out in distinct and graphic pictures, and it commends itself to the sensible reader by the absence of morbid sentimentality, yet it provokes laughter and excites tears."—(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

"This story will be found enjoyable by even the most fastidious veterans of fiction."—(Cincinnati Gazette.)

"The narrative is well told, and sufficiently sensational to insure the interest of all classes of readers. Mr. Shaw possesses a good degree of insight into the undercurrents of life, and has excellent dramatic power of combining and of producing situations."—(Cincinnati Commercial.)

"A Delicious Love Story."

HER LADYSHIP. A Novel. Square 16mo. Cloth, extra gilt, $1.25.

"A delicious love story, written by a Cincinnatian, well known in social and professional circles. The scene is laid in Virginia, during the war; the heroine an ardent rebel, the hero an officer in the Union army. The lady loses her heart to the music of Robin Adair, though she has not met the player. The dialogue is crisp, the situations very unique, and the denouement most cleverly managed. The author is said to have taken a page or two out of his own heart; and so to speak by the cards, etc."—(Cincinnati Commercial.)

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE STATE OF OHIO. Being a Catalogue of the Books and Pamphlets relating to the History of the State. With Collations and Bibliographical and Critical Notes, together with the prices at which many of the books have been sold at the principal public and private sales since 1860, and a complete Index by Subjects. By Peter G. Thomson. Royal 8vo. beautifully printed. (Sold only by subscription.) Cloth, $8.00. Half Morocco, extra, $10.00.

With Illustrations. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50. Leather, $2.00.

SIXTEEN SAVIOURS OR ONE? The Gospels not Brahmanic. By JOHN T. PERRY, of the Cincinnati Gazette. 12mo. Paper, 50 cts. Cloth, 75 cts.

"The mass of information contained within the limits of this work, is simbly astonishing. It affords a treasury of reliable data and authorities upon this difficult subject which is invaluable; and, as the price of the book is very low, we trust it will be widely circulated."—(Herald and Presbyter.)

CINCINNATI'S BEGINNINGS. Being the Early History of the City and the Miami Purchase. From hitherto unpublished documents. By FRANCIS W. MILLER. Large 12mo. Cloth, gilt extra, $1.75.

This is the most important work yet published, relating to the history of Cincinnati; it gives the early events in the settlement in the words of the settlers themselves; and explodes many of the old theories that have hitherto been looked upon as facts.

THE HEALTHY INFANT. A Practical Treatise on the Healthy Procreation of the Human Race. By TANDY L. DIX, M. D. 12mo. Cloth extra, $1.25.

"This is a condensed, plain, and eminently practicable manual for insuring the Health of Children. The treatment of the mother before the child's birth, the management of the newly born, and the growing child both in health and in sickness, are set forth with rare good sense and much minuteness. The book intended for unprofessional readers, will be found of much service in the family, and deserves a wide circulation."—(Cincinnati Gazette.)

THE LIBRARY CATALOGUE. Ruled and arranged to suit any number of volumes. 4to. Cloth. $1.50.

"A great convenience, in fact a necessity to every one who owns a library, whether large or small. The book is made of heavy paper, neatly and strongly bound in cloth with red edges. The following are the printed headings: Title, Shelf or number, Author, Volumes, Size, Where Published, Date of Publication, Where Bought, Cost, When Bought.

A SKETCH OF THE LIFE AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OF PROFESSOR ISAAC SAMS. For Fifty Years a Distinguished Teacher. By HENRY S. DOGGETT. With some reminiscences of the Hillsboro' Academy, by J. W. STEEL. Square 16mo. Cloth, extra, $1.00.

The subject of this memoir was for many years one of the prominent educators of Ohio. He was the compeer of Lewis, Ray, and Guilford, and like them left the impress of his work upon the section where he lived and worked.

After reading the manuscript of this sketch, Prof. John Hancock, Superintendent of Dayton Schools, writes: "I have read the Biographical Sketch of Prof. Sams with great pleasure. A character so worthy and original in many of its features, belonging in its professional side to a time that is rapidly passing away, ought, as it seems to me, be preserved for those who are to come after us as a striking example of what can be accomplished by downright manliness, under unfavorable circumstances. I think the narrative will interest many others besides those who had a personal acquaintance with its subject."

OHIO POLAND CHINA RECORD. Containing Pedigrees of Males and Females, a complete History of the Poland China Hog, etc. 8vo. Cloth, extra, $3.00.

"This book is sold for less than the price of a single set of shoes, and we can warrant that every farmer or horse-owner who is not already well informed in everything relating to the care of the horse's foot, will find himself well repaid in the investment."—(New England Farmer.)

HISTORY OF THE CINCINNATI SOCIETY OF EX-ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS. With Name, Rank, and Army Record of the Members. By A. H. MATTOX. 214 pages, with Illuminated Title. Royal 8vo. Cloth, gilt top, uncut edges, $1.25. Paper, 75 cts.

GOLDEN THOUGHTS

ON

MOTHER, HOME, HEAVEN.

COMPRISING NEARLY

Four Hundred Original Articles and Choice Selections in Prose and Poetry, by distinguished Authors at Home and Abroad,

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

By Rev. Theo. L. Cuyler, D. D.

This volume stands unequalled as an embodiment of the ripest thoughts and utterances of the best and wisest minds upon the "three dearest names to mortals given." In addition to original articles, the compiler has made selections from the storehouses of ancient and modern literature, and with masterly skill and effect has woven into the fabric of the book every appropriate topic within the scope of the subject. He has given us a book abounding in advice, admonition, comfort and consolation, clothed in "thoughts that breathe and words that burn." With such an array of well known and brilliant writers in all ages, from Seneca (B. C.) to Joseph Cook, we can safely bespeak for the book a reputation of rare excellence and enduring merit. There never was a theme of greater power and grandeur associated with the creations of the prolific press than the noble trinity of Mother, Home and Heaven. Many hearts will thrill with tenderness, many eyes glisten with tears, and many voices grow tremulous with emotion as these soul-stirring words fall upon the ear. Its vivacious spirit, its sparkling gems, its rich and varied fund of information, its tender and loving suggestions, its deep undertone of piety, all conspire to make it one of the grandest legacies, or tokens of regard and affection bestowed upon relatives and friends. It will prove a beautiful and enduring monument to the dignity, glory and power of Motherhood. Many a mother will feel her weary hands growing stronger and her faint heart growing hopeful as her eager eyes scan its pages. It will be a voice for the Home, a sweet, loving voice pleading for its peace, its safeguards and its sanctity. And it will also be a voice whispering in loving accents of Heaven, delineating its glories, and developing a purpose to secure it.

If you are a Parent get it, it will prove a faithful counsellor in Home affairs.

If you have a Home get it, it will aid you in making Home life more beautiful.

If you are bound for Heaven get it, it will cheer and help you on the way.

Headley's New Illustrated Biblical Work, written in the author's happiest style, and surpassing his former works that have sold by the 100,000, with Steel Engravings from designs by our artist, who has spent three years in Bible Lands. Rev. E. J. Goodspeed, D.D., Chicago, says: "Our old favorite, who wrote so graphically of the Sacred Mountains, has given us another volume of a similar character. His gorgeousness of imagery revels and is at home among the mighty men and sublime landscapes of the ancient past. A soberer pen would fail to reproduce the men and their surroundings in just proportions and coloring. We welcome, therefore, and heartily commend this noble volume, with its fresh illustrations, clear type, and handsome binding, hoping that our dear old Bible, ever new, because so human and yet divine, and hence adapted to our profoundest necessities, may become yet more thoroughly understood and universally read."

Designed to incite in old and young a greater desire to "Search the Scriptures."—JOHN v. 39.

BY A NEW YORK SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

BY REV. J. H. VINCENT, D.D.

THIS collection of treasures, new and old, is the grand summary of a large experience in devising methods and incentives to interest children and those of older growth in Bible study. It contains only such questions or exercises as would excite in the mind of Bible readers and seekers after truth a curiosity to know how, when, where, and under what circumstances they occurred. To secure these, a vast range of Biblical literature has been searched, and the leisure hours and painstaking labor of many years have been devoted to the undertaking.

From the Author's Preface.—"It has been a part of every Sunday's Programme in our School, for the past eight years, to propose a Bible Question or exercise, to be answered the following Sunday, upon cards distributed by the Secretary and collected at the call of the bell; the correct and incorrect answers being announced from the desk, with appropriate comments and explanations. A large number of the intricate problems are prize questions, which have occupied hours and even days in solving, and the interest manifested in them assures us that the benefit derived from these exercises—which have led to deeper thought and richer experience—can never be estimated."

The Value of One Question.—"A visitor being invited to say a few words in a Sunday-school, held up the Bible, and asked, 'What book is this?' 'The Bible.' was the answer from all parts of the room. 'Whose word is the Bible?' 'God's,' was the reply. 'How many of you think that the Bible is God's word?' 'Those who do may hold up their hands.' Nearly every scholar raised a hand. 'What makes you think that the Bible is God's word?' No answer. 'Now I want you to look into the matter. Think it over. Ask your parents about it. Get at the truth in any way you can. Next Sabbath bring the answer to your teachers.' As a result of that question, Bible evidences were examined in more homes of that community in the following week than ever before."—S. S. Times.

From Rev. J. H. Vincent's Introduction.—"We cannot give to our children too much Bible knowledge. They cannot know too much Bible history, nor too much Bible geography, nor be too well able to explain the obscure passages, nor too familiar with the true solution of the common difficulties, which all Bible students sooner or later encounter, and which they should be able to explain. In view of this need, I do most sincerely thank the industrious and ingenious 'New York Sunday School Superintendent,' who has compiled the valuable little manual of Biblical curiosities now presented to the public."

In one large 12mo. volume, nearly 500 pages. Price, $1.75.

STANDARD AND RELIGIOUS BOOKS.

PRICE.

Hoyt, Wayland, D. D. Hints and Helps for the Christian Life. A book of Practical Suggestions for Daily Living. 1 vol., 18 mo., 192 pages. Cloth, flexible, red edge.... 60

From among the many notices of the press we glean the following:

"It is for the hour of meditation, when the heart struggles with itself for light and comfort. The style is so unaffected, so simple, that one immediately understands that the author is a man who sits down alone now and then, and meditates secretly on divine things. He is communing with God in his soul. He is cultivating the inner life by pleasant thoughts of God's goodness. Those little chapters of one or two pages will make a good lesson for each day."—Central Baptist.

"Aptly described by its title."—N. Y. Herald.

"Calculated to stimulate, guide and develop the spiritual life of the Christian. It will be found helpful to a thoughtful Christian."—N. Y. Watch Tower.

"A neat little volume of fresh and pleasantly-written devotional remarks. What he says of wordliness, and of religion in the home, is well worthy of careful attention."—Independent.

"Characterized by the spiritual helpfulness, clearness of thought and practical good sense, which make Dr. Hoyt's preaching so acceptable to his large congregation, and his occasional contributions so welcome to our readers. The character of the book is expressed in its title; the light and compact form in which the book is issued, makes it available for use in the sick room, or for one's pocket companion."—Christian Union.

Hedden, Rev. W. D. Sunshine Among the Clouds, or, The MacDonalds. A Story of Trust and Trial. One volume. 12 mo. Illustrated..... 1 50

Letter from Rev. R. B. Hull, New York, to the Author:

MY DEAR BROTHER HEDDEN:—

I am always chary of using the word "love," but if I should say to-day, I love the man who wrote "Sunshine Among the Clouds," I should tell only the simple truth. Will it do you good to know that you have done me good? You have, and from my heart I say God bless you. "Ivanhoe" is the best of Scott's novels; "David Copperfield" is the best of Dicken's; "Middlemarch" the best of George Elliot's. I would rather be the author of "Sunshine Among the Clouds" than of all the other three. Why? It is full of God, of Christ, and will be, I believe, succeeded by the power of the Holy Spirit. They have no God in them. I read the book and was charmed at first, then comforted, then lifted Godward and inspired to work for Him. I have wept more in reading your book than I have for many a day, and they were wholesome tears.

I do not know whether the book is in our Sunday School library or not. If it is not it must go in. I think too much of my copy to part with it.

JOSEPH COOK says: "'In the Volume of the Book' is a production which I read with deep profit. Its chapters are mountain summits laden with the dew of Hermon. I wander among them often and always find refreshment."

Dr. J. H. VINCENT, in the Sunday School Journal, says: "The fullest and most satisfactory of all the modern books on the use of the Bible. It is packed with rich thought, the result of wide research, careful condensation, and deep experience. We cannot commend it too cordially. While there may be from the author's predilections strong Calvanistic allusions, every Arminian will be able to use the book with great advantage."

"There is a very general demand among Bible readers for books which give them plain and practical helps to intelligent Scripture study. Such a book has been prepared by the Rev. GEO. F. PENTECOST, in a work entitled 'In the Volume of the Book.' Mr. PENTECOST has well performed his task, which is written in a clear and pleasant style; will be found to contain much general information and many useful suggestions, based upon that wide experience of popular need which an Evangelist like the writer obtains."—S. S. Times.

"The author is evidently all interest to prove a helper. His book is full of marrow and fatness. It presents at length the distinguishing characteristics of the Bible; how it is misread, and the best ways of studying it. We strongly commend the utterances."—Christian Advocate, N. Y.

"Mr. Platt has worked out an idea so striking for its attractiveness and utility that, perceiving it, we at once go to work wondering that somebody else had not executed it before him. He has gone over the vast and superb areas of John Ruskin's Writings, and cutting out one block here and another there, as it suited his purpose, has put all these parts together again into a literary mosaic, constituting a clear and harmonious system of art principles, wherein Ruskin all the while is the teacher. He has reduced Ruskin to a code. On the whole, we see not what this book lacks of being a complete text-book of the Gospel of Art according to St. John Ruskin.—Christian Union.

WOOD, DE VOLSON. A TREATISE ON THE RESISTANCE OF MATERIALS, AND AN APPENDIX ON THE PRESERVATION OF TIMBER.
Third edition, thoroughly revised. 8vo, cloth.....$3 00

This work consists chiefly of the Lectures delivered by Professor Wood upon this subject to the classes in Civil Engineering in the University of Michigan. It is a text-book upon the subject, and gives a brief sketch of the history of the development of the theories connected with the growth of the subject, and a large amount of experimental matter. Much of the analysis in regard to the changes of form resulting from stresses within the elastic limit involves the Calculus. An English reviewer of the work says: "It is equal in grade to Rankine's work."

—— A TREATISE ON THE THEORY OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF BRIDGES AND ROOFS.
Designed as a Text-Book and for Practical Use. Illustrated with numerous wood engravings. Second edition, revised and corrected, 1876.
1 vol. 8vo.....$3 00

This work treats of all the well-known forms of Bridges, and several forms of Roofs. The analysis is generally of a simple kind, the essential parts of the work requiring only a knowledge of Algebra and Trigonometry. The examples are original and many of them novel in character. The latter part of the work develops the general mode of investigation by means of the general equations of statics.

WOOD, DE VOLSON. THE ELEMENTS OF ANALYTICAL MECHANICS.
With numerous examples and illustrations. For use in Scientific Schools and Colleges. Second edition, revised and enlarged. 8vo, cloth.....$3 00

The Calculus is freely used in this work. One of the chief objects sought is to teach the student how to use analytical methods. It contains many problems completely solved, and many others which are left as exercises for the student. The last chapter shows how to reduce all the equations of mechanics from the principle of D'Alembert.

—— PRINCIPLES OF ELEMENTARY MECHANICS.
Fully illustrated. 12mo, cloth. 150 pages.....$1 50

This work is designed to give more attention to the fundamental principles of mechanics. Analysis is subordinated, and what is used is of a very elementary character. No Calculus is used nor any analysis of a high character, and yet many problems which are generally considered quite difficult are here solved in a very simple manner. The principles of Energy, which holds an important place in modern physics, is explained, and several problems solved by its use. Every chapter contains numerous problems and examples, the former of which are fully solved; but the latter, which are numerical, are unsolved, and are intended to familiarize the student with the principles, and test his ability to apply the subject practically. At the close of each chapter is a list of Exercises. These consist of questions of a general character, requiring no analysis in order to answer them, but simply a good knowledge of the subject. The mechanics of fluids forms an important part of the work.

WOOD, DE VOLSON. THE ELEMENTS OF CO-ORDINATE GEOMETRY.

OF

G. I. JONES & COMPANY,

210 & 212 Pine Street, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Exile: A Dramatic Poem. By LEWIS J. BLOCK. Cloth, 12mo, $1.25.

Hegel's Philosophy of Art; being the second part of Hegel's Æsthetik, in which are unfolded historically the three great fundamental phases of the Art-Activity of the World. Translated, and accompanied with an Introductory Essay giving an Outline of the entire Æsthetik. By WILLIAM M. BRYANT. Cloth, 8vo, $1.75.

The following is part of a notice which appeared in the Boston Daily Advertiser of February 17th: "Hegel's works on art are nothing less than a revelation teeming with the evidence of true genius. . . . The reader should always bear in mind that Hegel is not merely historical, or intellectual, or logical, or metaphysical. His philosophy is itself a fine art of the noblest type, saturated with poetic feeling, never subjective, always ethical, and one of the very few works to which it is always safe to return for inspiration, energy, and safe judgments. Even the tyro will feel strange emotions in reading the description of the Madonnas (pp. 110, 115). . . . Mr. Bryant's translation of Hegel's discourses on Symbolic, Classic, and Romantic Art is seasonable, as there is a dangerous tendency abroad to degrade art, that highest form of all human activity, to the low level of accidental likes and dislikes. Whoever has read Hegel is in no danger of judging it falsely, or to be satisfied with mere opinions."

Hosmer's Short History of German Literature. A Short History of German Literature from the Earliest Period to the Present Time. By Prof. JAMES K. HOSMER. Revised edition. Cloth, 12mo, $2.

It must be admitted that during the present century no foreign literature has affected us so powerfully as that of Germany, and that some knowledge of its great names and general course of development is essential to thorough education.

In this work no attempt is made to mention all German writers. No nation has been so prolific of books as Germany, and to attempt to give their author's names even, would require a good-sized volume. Attention is concentrated on the epoch-making writers.

The Short History of German Literature is precisely the book required by intelligent persons, too busy in other directions to become specialists, for the obtaining of a satisfactory general view, and so giving here proper breadth to their culture. It is also precisely the book to afford the basis upon which, if desired, an elaborate knowledge may be afterward reared.

It is an excellent book for literary clubs and classes. In fine, in the words of one of the most eminent preachers in America, "It is the most instructive and inspiring account of its subject accessible to the general reader."

Ludlow's Dramatic Life as I Found It. A record of personal experience, with an account of dramatic affairs in the West and South from 1815 to 1853, and brief sketches of the principal actors and actresses who have appeared on the stage in the Mississippi Valley. By N. M. LUDLOW, actor and manager for thirty-eight years. Cloth, 8vo, $3.50.

St. Louis Republican: "N. M. Ludlow is eighty-five years of age, entered the dramatic profession in his twentieth year, and was for thirty-eight years an actor and manager of theatres in the West and South. Mr. Ludlow retains his memory, and in fact all his mental faculties, with remarkable clearness, and is still physically active. What such a man, with a long career behind him, has to say about the theatre, the drama, and the actors, must be of intrinsic value and uncommon interest to a great many people. The work is of general historic value, aside from its special local interest. It is compact of records and reminiscences of men and women whom we have known and gratefully remember for the pleasure they have given us. Its style is plain, familiar, often conversational in tone. The pages talk to you as the writer would were he present. He introduces all the facts and circumstances that occur to him about the persons or subjects in hand at once, and is always entertaining. Mr. Ludlow's off-hand cordial manner of putting down all his thoughts and memories as they come is a relief from the shackles of rigid literary arrangement, and makes full compensation as the narrative proceeds through sixty-six chapters to the close, which brings the history down to May 1, 1853, the date of the dissolution of the firm of Ludlow and Smith, at the St. Charles Theatre, New Orleans, and Mr. Ludlow's retirement from professional life, the theatre then passing into the hands of Ben De Bar. Mr. N. M. Ludlow's work on the drama, dramatic artists, and theatrical management is highly honorable to the author, of solid value as history, and deserves a wide reading for its genuine interest."

Morgan's Literary Studies. Literary Studies from the Great British authors. By HORACE H. MORGAN. 12mo, $1.50.

It is believed that this is the best compilation of the masterpieces of English Literature yet offered to the public. The authors are representative, and the selections have the rare merit of being characteristic of the writers. The authors, from Chaucer to Macaulay and Tennyson, are arranged chronologically, according to their first published works.

Morgan's Topical Shakespeariana. A Collection of English Shakespeariana, arranged under Headings to facilitate Reference to Special Subjects of Investigation. By HORACE H. MORGAN. Cloth, 8vo, $2.

Private Chapter of the War (1861-5). By GEO. W. BAILEY, late of the 2d Division Staff, 15th Army Corps. Cloth, 12mo, $1.

The book is a record of the writer's very uncommon experiences during two and a half months after the battle of Atlanta, July 22, 1864. The story is one of absorbing interest, and is a literal record of FACTS.

Snider's System of Shakespeare's Dramas. System of Shakespeare's Dramas. By DENTON J. SNIDER. 2 vols., 12mo, cloth, $4. 2 vols. in 1, $2.50.

The Stars and the Earth; or, Thoughts upon Space, Time, and Eternity. Reprinted from the last London edition, which was edited by Prof. R. A. PROCTOR. Cloth, 24mo, 50 cents.

☞ It will also be noticed that while we have made expensive additions to the Unabridged, we have not increased our prices.

(MOSS'S NEW PROCESS.)

SOMETHING over ten years ago, after a long period of study and experiment, with many reverses and discouragements, Mr. JOHN C. Moss began the production of relief plates for letter-press printing by the scientific process which has since become so widely known under the name of Photo-Engraving. Like many other experimenters and inventors, Mr. Moss was entirely dependent upon his own exertions and resources, and throughout the whole of his investigations and experiments was bound down to exacting and monotonous daily toil to maintain his family, keeping, however, long nightly vigils that he might bring his experiments to a successful result, and perfect and render of practical utility the beautiful art to which he had devoted himself. But his embarrassments did not end even here, for he was obliged in great measure to depend upon his own ingenuity and skill to supply the very apparatus necessary to carry on his labors. Throughout his whole course he received encouragement and active assistance from his wife, and finally, when success crowned their efforts, they began together systematically, in their own dwelling, to produce engravings—thus laying the foundation of the business which has since become so vastly extended as to receive notice and patronage not only from all parts of our own land, but also from England and several of the Continental countries.

Mr. Moss has been known for some years as the Superintendent and really active head of the Photo-Engraving Co., of No. 67 Park Place. Having now severed his connection with that company, he is happy to announce that, as President and Superintendent of the Moss Engraving Company, recently established at No. 535 Pearl Street, he has introduced his new and highly-perfected process of engraving, which ensures the production of much more satisfactory work than has hitherto been done, and also admits of a rapidity of execution that enables the new Company to keep pace even with the hurried demands of newspaper publication. This rapid and most perfect mode of producing every variety of illustration and ornamental work is advantageous not only to the book and newspaper illustrator, but also to that higher class of advertisers whose attractive cards and circulars, escaping, through their artistic beauty, the usual fate of their old-time predecessors, remain as gems upon the parlor table.

The superiority of the new process, after the most rigid tests, has been thoroughly established. It consists chiefly in this—a prime merit in a relief plate—that the lines are made much deeper than was possible by any other method, and are also much more unbroken and delicate—rendered, indeed, with as great power and finish as by the most ductile tool of the practised engraver,—and thus the true character and spirit of a printed impression, which depend so largely upon firmness and depth of incision in all line work, are most fully attained.

But it is not alone upon the superiority of its process that the Company depends. Another element is requisite for the attainment of the highest results in engraving—a primary and most important element—viz. : practical, intelligent co-operation on the part of designers. Accordingly, we are happy to announce that we have secured the services of the most skillful and experienced artists and draughtsmen in their various departments, who act as constant coadjutors of the Superintendent and the well-trained workers of his process. The several heads of the departments devoted to the engraving of Portraits, Landscapes, Buildings, Machinery, Ornamental Lettering, etc., are men of recognized ability, and, together with most of their assistants, have had long experience in their particular branches and special training with reference to the needs of photo-engraving under the eye of the Superintendent.

All the improvements made by Mr. Moss in the process of photo-engraving since 1872 have been retained by him, and are employed in connection with his new method, and with it only.

JAMES CONNER.

EXPLANATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

As many inquiries are constantly being made in regard to our process, we have prepared the following paragraphs, as mainly covering the points upon which information is needed.

Engraved Relief Plates, by our new process, are of two kinds—one, on hard metal, like the usual stereotype plate; the other, the electro-plate, being the same in quality of material as the ordinary electrotype. These plates are produced by a photo-chemical process, and are, for careful finish and general workmanship, fully equal to hand work—with this advantage, however, in their favor, that they can render quite perfectly either the effect of a wood engraving, steel engraving, crayon drawing or lithograph.

They are mounted on blocks type high, and require precisely the same preparation for the press as any electrotype made from a wood engraving. In fact, they differ in no essential particular, so far as press-work is concerned, from such electrotype plate. On the score of economy, however, as well as on account of the adaptability of this process to the production of every possible variety of design and artistic conception—pen drawings, charcoal sketches, rough draughts with pencil and crayon, wood engravings, steel plates and lithographs, all being faithfully and graphically rendered—its immense advantage over any other kind of work done after the old methods is strikingly apparent.

Copy.—Whenever finished drawings are furnished us for reproduction, it is important that they should be from the hands of artists who have had some experience in this kind of work. The copy should in all cases be clear, the lines black, and all parts carefully and sharply defined, for in general we can do little more than exactly reproduce the original. Changes may be made and defects remedied, but it is better to have the copy once for all just right.

This perfect reproduction of the draught of the designer we hold to be a preeminent virtue of our process. By no other means can the artist obtain a perfect transcript of his work. The wood engraver, at most, is but an interpreter, striving by his best means to obtain a likeness to his original sketch. But by the process of Photo-Engraving the design is unerringly transferred, line for line and dot for dot, to the plate—traced by the sun's rays on the yielding metal.

Photographs and Pencil Sketches.—Where engravings are desired of photographs, slight sketches or pale designs by pencil or pen, we have first to put them into the hands of our own artists, to be carefully re-drawn with thoroughly black ink on Bristol-board or other specially prepared paper. It is necessary, in most cases, that the drawings should be double the size of the required engraving. This ensures greater perfection of detail, finer lines and more thoroughness of execution generally.

Designs by our own Artists.—With the ample facilities at our command, both artistic and mechanical, we can furnish suitable designs, when desired, from the slightest sketch, and often from a mere verbal description—the design being, of course, submitted to the customer, if he desires it, before being placed in the hands of the engravers.

Photographs and lithographs, and tintypes taken in the ordinary manner, may also be sent for reproduction in the same manner as those referred to above. In these cases, that do not admit of direct reproduction, almost any size will do, but it is best to have the details carefully expressed.

Selections for Reproduction.—Various kinds of fine prints may be enlarged, and sometimes without any loss; but in most cases (as in the enlargement of photographs) minor defects, scarcely perceived in the original, become emphasized, and are made too apparent in the copy. Generally it is safer to select for reproduction the coarser kinds of work, as the tendency is, in this case, to obscure the blemishes and bring the coarsely drawn lines of an ordinary wood-cut to something of the fineness and delicacy of a steel engraving.

Any print, however, may be sent us as copy, and when it will not admit of successful reproduction, it may be re-drawn to suit any size or style required. When copy is to be either reduced or enlarged, the relative proportions are preserved. Accordingly, if either of the dimensions, length or breadth, be given, the other will be unfailingly regulated by the Camera.

Proofs (tintypes or photos) will be furnished, when requested, of drawings made by our own artists, which will enable the customer to make any necessary suggestions or corrections before the drawing is finally placed in the hands of the engravers. When finished a proof is carefully taken, and this may serve as some criterion of the work to be expected from the pressman. With proper care and judgment he ought really to produce a more perfect and satisfactory impression.

Estimates will be given by us promptly on application. To render these exact and satisfactory it is necessary to furnish us with a copy of the drawing, sketch, print or photograph, and full and exact information as to the size and general style of the work required, particular care being necessary in all minor details.

An Approximate Scale for Electrotype plates will be found in our General Circular, but the rates there laid down are not entirely fixed and unalterable, and of necessity shift themselves somewhat to suit particular circumstances.

Terms.—We require on all orders a deposit of one-half the price of the work, the balance to be paid on delivery.

Plates sent by express will be C. O. D.

The above rule is unalterable except when our customers are well known and of assured responsibility, or when satisfactory references can be given from persons in this city.

Remittances should be made either by Drafts on New York, by Post Office Money Orders payable to The Moss Engraving Co., or by Registered Letters. To all checks on local banks must be added the necessary charges for collection.
